

Opening Show

Contributed by Joe O'Connell
Saturday, 03 March 2007
Last Updated Sunday, 04 March 2007

A large crowd appeared at the opening performance of Cambusdonald Royal - The Second Sorcerer's Tale, in the Carnmore Community Centre last Thursday night. The cast played their hearts out and the crowd laughed their way through the show.

Director Philip Cribbin was delighted with the first live performance and looked forward to the first night on the drama circuit, this Saturday in Castle Island Co.Kerry. Cambusdonald Royal will be back in Claregalway for the opening night of the Claregalway Drama Festival on Friday March 16th, before finishing up in a three night run at the Town Hall March 26th -28th. Details of the play are to be found at this link , and details of the circuit dates can be found here

Details on getting tickets