

Mike Hession

Mike has been active in drama in Claregalway for almost twenty-five years. His late father, James, was a noted actor in the 1930's and 40's.

Mike's acting career includes roles in "Ten Little Indians", "Drama at Inish", "The Sorcerer's Tale", "The Communication Cord", "Gaslight", "Professor Tim" and his own favourite, Mawleogs Canavan in his multi-award winning production of "Mungo's Mansion". He has also played several roles in our Autumn Theatre productions.

Mike is also an accomplished director and has brought the group to the All-Ireland Finals with his productions of "Mungo's Mansion", "Poor Beast in the Rain" and "An Ideal Husband". His other productions include "Harvey" was the very challenging "Pygmalion". This year he is relishing his return to the boards in the role of Abbot Wilfred.

Joined : 1983

Acting Debut:

Roles :